NYRA SPOTLIGHT SHINES ON STEWARDS

OZONE PARK, N.Y. – The fourth installment of The New York Racing Association, Inc.’s (NYRA) “Spotlight Series” videos is now available on demand at NYRA.com and profiles NYRA steward Braulio Baeza, Jr., Jockey Club steward Dr. Ted Hill and New York State Racing and Wagering Board steward Carmine Donofrio.

The video brings fans into the stewards’ room to see all that goes on during a race and the decisions that have to be made regarding disqualifications.

Created to give racing fans a behind the scenes look at the people who help NYRA racing operate smoothly on a consistent basis, previous “Spotlight Series” videos have featured Tim Kelly and Ed Brown, the clerk of scales and assistant clerk of scales, track announcer Tom Durkin, and paddock judge Neal Cutrone.

All four of the “Spotlight Series” videos can be viewed by online at <http://www.nyra.com/nyraspotlight/nyraspotlight.html> and at NYRA’s official Youtube site.

The “Spotlight Series” joins “Jockey Video Cards,” up-close-and-personal interviews with NYRA’s leading jockeys, and “On the Record,” candid conversations with some of New York’s most renowned trainers, as the latest in popular on-demand videos available on NYRA.com.
